SECTION FIVE

Below is a short story about Girmay. Read it carefully and answer the questions below.

Girmay is a Grade Four student. He lives in Hawzen. In the summer season, Girmay looks after his parents' sheep. One day, while he was watching his sheep, he was also playing Qulbo (a traditional game of shepherds).

After he finished his game, he looked at his sheep. Unfortunately, there were no sheep around. He searched for his sheep, running here and there all over the field.

Girmay saw his sheep scattered and running in different directions. He ran after his sheep, and he wondered why the sheep were running like crazy and scattered.

He was shocked by what he saw, and couldn't believe his eyes. He found his favourite sheep, which his father used to call 'the main and the leader of our sheep', eaten by a fox.

He was terribly shocked. Girmay felt regret and was sad for not paying better attention to his sheep.

21 Why did Girmay feel regret?

A. Because his sheep was eaten by a fox
B. Because he didn't play games
C. Because he didn't go to school
D. His sheep was lost

22 What grade is Girmay in?
