Young Lives Head Teacher's Phone Survey 2020

Ethiopia information sheet and consent script – English translation

Please use this information to explain the Young Lives study and the Telephone Survey to all participants. Use a language which the participants understand, and make sure your explanation is simple and clear. Try to answer any questions which participants have.

Hello, my name is [x] and I'm calling from Policy Studies Institute (PSI). I'm calling about a follow up to the Young Lives research that your school took part in in 2009. Can I tell you more about the research? [Await confirmation]

We are conducting a new survey to understand how the COVID-19 situation is affecting schools in Ethiopia. Like the last survey, this is being run by PSI and the University of Oxford. It is being funded by Echidna Giving, a foundation interested in education.

We would like you to complete this survey on behalf of your school. If you choose to take part, it will involve completing a questionnaire with me over the telephone. It will take about 15 minutes, and I will ask you questions about how COVID-19 is affecting your school and how you are responding. As a thank you for your time, we will send you Birr 300 or mobile card equivalent to this amount after the call.
If you give your permission, we will link your answers to this survey to information that we collected about your school in 2009. This is so that we can understand how different types of school are affected by COVID-19.

Researchers at PSI and the University of Oxford will use the answers that you and other schools give to write a report about how the COVID-19 situation is affecting schools and children in Ethiopia. The report won't include your name or the name of your school.

PSI and the University of Oxford are responsible for making sure that your information is looked after safely and only used for research. When they have finished carrying out this survey, they will remove any information that can be used to identify you or any other schools that take part. The anonymous answers for your school and others will then be available on the UK data archive – a website that researchers from around the world can access to conduct research.

If you give permission, the research will keep your contact details until the end of the Young Lives project (2020), so that they can get in touch if they want to invite your school take part in other research in the future. These details will be stored safely on secure computers and no one else will have access to them.

You don't have to agree to take part. You can ask me any questions you want before or throughout. You can also skip a question or stop at any stage without giving a reason.
You can ask for your answers to be deleted by contacting PSI. The phone number is: 0911004712. You can also use this number if you have any questions or complaints.

Do you have any questions you want to ask me? [DO NOT CONTINUE UNTIL QUESTIONS ADDRESSED]
Are you happy to take part? [IF YES, ARRANGE TIME TO CALL BACK OR OPEN WEB SURVEY TO BEGIN SURVEY NOW. IF NO, THANK PARTICIPANT FOR TIME AND RECORD REFUSAL]
